

identifying principles & elements of a landscape.

urp 3216: landscape
planning studio

submitted to:
sumita roy, lecturer
muhammad waresul hassan
nipun, lecturer
DURP, RUET.

submitted by:
md. arshadul islam,
1807002

foy's lake complex.

an urban oasis

overview.

location: khulshi,
chattogram
area: 320 acres
use: amusement
park/resort
management:
concord group.

landscape principles & elements put to use at the foy's lake complex.

entrance
facade.

high trees
(sight line)

scale/
proportion

rough texture

checker board
pattern & lines

vibrant
colors(appeals)

[rhythm & balance]

symmetry

courtyard.

central tree-
vase form

variable texture
(fine and coarse)
& color

shrubs of
different forms (round & geometric)

sitting
arrangements

meandering
lines

[rhythm &
functionality] ₇

shrubs (round & vase form)

texture

meandering
lines

[variation]

gazebo.

relaxation
inducing color

balanced scale
& proportion

sitting
arrangements

main plaza.

textures

smooth natural
to concrete
transition

fencing &
lighting

site grading &
drainage

elements.

artificial waterfall
for soothing ambience

arch bridge for
connectivity

lake pavilion for sight
seeing

retaining walls

meandering lines

flagstone
walkway &
textured plants

[visually pleasing
focus of lake]

elements.

directional signage

inspirational
sculptures

animal sculptures
representing
biodiversity

main plaza in
evening.

[dynamic landscaping]

varied texture
with color

asymmetrically
pleasing view

aesthetically
attractive

thank you.